

Media ownership consolidation is already squelching the diversity of voices that makes America so unique. Please oppose any new rules that would ease the consolidation process -- free media is the American way!